SOCIETY.

The marriage is announced from Seattle, Washington state, of Miss Jessie Tutt Riggs of Washington, D. C., and Mr. Lovell Grimes of Bozeman, Mont. The ceremony took place September 18 at 3 o'clock in the Episcopal Church in that city. They will make their home in Bozeman. Mrs. James E. Blackwell of Seattle, a sister of the bride, attended the wedding.

The invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Helen Corinne handler and Dr. Samuel Joy Turnbull, U. S. A., Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church. The bride will be attended by Miss Dorothy Holbrook as maid of honor, and the ushers will be classmates of the groom. Drs. Upshur, Kennard and Creighton of the Walter Reed Hospital and Dr. Coulton of Fort Leavenworth, Kan. Mr. Barton P. Turnbull of Florida will be best man for his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carroll, whose home has been in Paris since their marriage, arrived in New York yesterday, and intend to make their home on the old Carroll estate, Doughoregan Manor Md. Mrs. Carroll was Miss Suzanne Bancroft, granddaughter of the late George Bancroft, the historian, and min-ister to France. She has spent most of her life in Europe, and her visit to this country last winter was the first in many years. She was a great belle in this city, during the brief interval which elapsed between the conclusion of her school life abroad and her marriage to school life abroad and her marriage to Mr. Carroll. She lived with her grandfather, and when they appeared together at social entertainments, notably White House events, they made an unusual looking couple, he with all the signs of old age about him, and she with the charm and vivacity of youth, being regarded as one of the most striking beauties of that time. The couple has one son, Charles Car-roll, too, whose profession will be that nuch of social grandeur reaching back
